Tickets issued by the Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology are subject to the following conditions:

These Terms and Conditions may be varied at any time. Any variations become effective on the day immediately after their publication on the website and apply to any purchases made after that date.

These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of Queensland, Australia.

Once confirmed, your ticket and any transaction fee will not be refunded or exchanged, except as provided for in these Terms and Conditions, in the LPA Code or as required by law (including the Australian Consumer Law).

1. TICKETING

1.1 Tickets are only valid if they are purchased through our event on Eventbrite “Annual Lunch & Presentation - The Adventure of Story by Dr Elizabeth Tatum” via this link and hosted by Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology’s official Eventbrite Organiser profile or through the Abbey Museum office. Tickets not purchased through an authorised point of sale entry will be refused.

1.2 Prior to purchasing a ticket through the Eventbrite website, you may be required to register for a user account and to nominate an email address and password for your account. You must maintain the confidentiality and security of your user account (including your password) and not provide it to any other person.

1.3 Please treat your ticket as you would money or other valuables. Do not share your ticket barcode, it may prevent your entry if it is duplicated. Please keep your tickets handy either in the Eventbrite app or print them out and take them with you.

1.4 All ticket purchases are non-transferable and may not be resold, packaged or used for advertising, promotion or other commercial purposes (including competitions or trade promotions) or to enhance the demand for other goods and services, without prior written consent from the organiser. If a ticket is sold or used in breach of these conditions, the bearer of the ticket may be denied admission, or other action taken, without guarantee of a refund. Entry may also be denied if tickets are not purchased from an authorised point of sale.

2. ENTRY

2.1 Event hours are Saturday 29th October, 1.00pm to 4.00pm.

2.2 The promoter or their designee, reserves the right to deny admission to the Venue and the Banquet to any person holding a ticket that appears to have been tampered with, counterfeited, defaced or duplicated.

2.3 Entry may be refused if the ticket buyer does not obey all government regulations regarding the event.

2.4 Photo ID may be required for age and name verification.

3. GENERAL

3.1 The program for this event is provisional and subject to change as necessary without notice due to/or other operational reasons.

3.3 Whilst at this event, visitors are responsible for the security of their own property. Visitors are reminded not to leave bags or packages unattended at any time.

3.4 Images of this event taken with a camera, mobile phone or other wireless device cannot be used for any purpose other than for private and domestic purposes, without prior written consent of the Committee and payment of any imposed fee. Images cannot be sold, licensed, published or otherwise commercially exploited.

3.5 Making or distributing of broadcasts, commentary or news reports by any means in any format or media including any such commentary made by mobile phone or other wireless device is not permitted without prior written consent of the Committee.

3.6 Entering the site to make political statements or unauthorised protests will result in you being removed from the venue and being referred to the Qld Police Service.

3.7 Visitors consent to being photographed, filmed and recorded as visitors to this event and consent to the use of any such film, image or recording at the discretion of The Committee.

3.8 We reserve the right to add, withdraw, reschedule or substitute artists and/or vary advertised programs, prices, venues, seating arrangements and audience capacity.

8. CUSTOMER SERVICE STATEMENT

8.1 If for any reason we are unable to process your order, please contact us and we will notify you within 2 business days to begin the resolution process.

9. CUSTOMER SERVICE POLICY

9.1 The Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology is committed to providing exceptional customer service and quality events and opportunities. We endeavour to make sure that all events and opportunities listed on our website are up to date and pricing is true and correct. If we are unable to process your booking request, we will notify you within 2 business days to arrange an alternative processing option.

10. REFUND POLICY

10.1 Please choose carefully. We do not give refunds if you simply change your mind, make a purchasing error or make a wrong decision.

Tickets are final and non-refundable and non-transferable as stated at time of booking.

No refunds will be made if you choose not to attend due to inclement weather.

10.2 No refund or exchange will be given on any ticket except in case of cancellation of the Event as a response to a Queensland Health Directive.

10.3 If the event is unable to proceed on the advertised date or location by Government order, the Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology committee reserves the right to reschedule the Event and offer a credit or exchange to the rescheduled date or offer a refund request window of 28 days. In the event of the cancellation in advance of the event, we will provide a refund.

10.4 There will be no refund on any unused portion of tickets if you or your invitees are asked or forced to leave or if you decide not to attend any part of the Event.

10.5 The Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology will provide a refund or exchange where you advise the Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology prior to the commencement of the event and provide a doctor's certificate stating Covid-19 as the reason for absence. Covid refunds are only provided with medical certificate or confirmation of registered positive Rapid Antigen test from Queensland Health or Positive PCR test result.

The Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology will also provide a refund or exchange where you advise the Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology and provide a doctor's certificate before the event if you or any other members of your booking party:

11. PRIVACY POLICY

11.1 We have recently updated our privacy policy to comply with the May 31st 2018 GDPR deadline and the following will explain how your data is protected

11.2 The Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology complies with these above requirements, which have succeeded the Privacy Act 1988 (Commonwealth) and the guidelines developed by the Australian Privacy Commissioner

11.3 The Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology is dedicated to keeping your details private. Any information, we collect in relation to you, is kept strictly secured. Information about individuals may be collected by the website or from written material provided to the Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology upon purchase of your ticket for use solely by the Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology. It will only be used for the purpose for which you have provided it and will only be sent communications in accordance with upcoming Museum activities, alerts and pre and post-event notifications. We will not use your email address for any other purpose and will not disclose it without your consent. You can opt-out of communications at any time.

11.4 We do not pass on/sell/swap any of your personal details with anyone. We use this information to identify your orders, provide you with our newsletters (if applicable) and to personalise your event experience with us. The Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology uses cookies to allow you to login to your account, maintain a shopping cart and to purchase items in your shopping cart. Cookies sent to your computer from the Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology only last while you are browsing our website. We do not store persistent cookies on your computer.

11.5 Tickets bought on the Eventbrite platform will be subject to the Eventbrite Privacy Policy

11.6 Whenever you use our web site, or any other web site, the computer on which the web pages are stored (the Web server) needs to know the network address of your computer so that it can send the requested web pages to your Internet browser. The unique network address of your computer is called its "IP address," and is sent automatically each time you access any Internet site. From a computer's IP address, it is possible to determine the general geographic location of that computer, but otherwise it is anonymous.

11.7 We do not keep a record of the IP addresses from which users access our site except where you have specifically provided us with information about yourself, in which case we also record your IP address for security purposes. An example of this would be when proceeding to a checkout to finalise an order you may wish to make. After completing the form provided, your IP address will be stored along with a transaction number that allows us to track your order.

11.8 The Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology collects name, address and email address information about friends and users of the Museum and people who have attended Museum functions or who have visited our online sites and networks. Private information collected by the Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology is used to keep you informed of events and functions at the museum, to acknowledge receipt of donations, to provide tickets to functions or answer inquiries.

11.9 If you choose not to provide the information requested, we may not be able to accommodate your request for tickets or information.

11.10 Any personal information (except postcodes or country of departure) communicated to The Committee by the purchaser is also collected for the purposes of assisting with contact tracing. Further, The Committee may also use such personal information for direct marketing purposes in its promotion of the Festival, the Abbey Museum or associated entities and related products. Where such use is made the purchaser will be given prior opportunity to 'opt out' of receiving further direct marketing material.

11.11 You may access the personal information the Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology holds on you by contacting office@abbeymuseum.asn.au

11.12 You may unsubscribe at any time by clicking the unsubscribe button included on our eMarketing correspondence or by emailing your unsubscribe request to office@abbeymuseum.asn.au

The Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology will only send you material which you have indicated you are interested in receiving.
